About the Student Alumni Leadership Board

The Student Alumni Leadership Board (SALB) supports the KU Alumni Association in its mission of strengthening loyalty, friendship, commitment and communication among all those who take pride in KU. SALB serves as the official student representatives and volunteers of the KU Alumni Association. SALB is considered the link between past, present and future Jayhawks, and represents the University at various functions throughout the year. Additionally, members facilitate spirit functions, serve as campus ambassadors and organize community service projects. The SALB office is located in the Adams Alumni Center. As a member of SALB, you will interact with some of the best student leaders, campus officials and alumni who bleed crimson and blue. You will have access to many leadership opportunities, and have lots of fun!
